KOMPUTER ENTHUSIASTS OF GREATER SEATTLE

Prez Says:

Jon Mercer

Welcome to December! We have elections at the December General Meeting so make sure to attend. If you are interested in running for a position, you can still nominate yourself or someone else at the meeting. I will not be running for President again due to work requirements which require a lot of traveling, so this will be my last Prez Says for now. I won't be leaving the Board; I will be running as a Board Member at Large.

There is a new release of Windows 10--build 9870. It has some changes to some of the base windows features and patches. You can read about it at <http://www.cnet.com/news/windows-10-whats-on-tap/>. They are still saying that it will be released the later part of 2015. I haven't heard anything about cost yet.

As you probably have seen, the Orion Space Craft had its first unmanned test launch. It is designed to land the first people onto Mars in around 20 years. You can watch the first unmanned landing at <https://www.facebook.com/video.php?v=10152501764828091&set=vb.86505458090&type=2&theater>

In case you were wondering, the bones found under the parking lot in England were confirmed as Richard III. http://www.livescience.com/48963-king-richard-iii-dna-confirmed.html?ad-bid=10152417684056761&adbpl=fb&adbpr=30478646760&cmpid=514627_20141207_36645997

The New Horizon space probe that was launched in 2006 and slept for most of the trip awoke successfully for its 2015 encounter with Pluto. <http://www.nbcnews.com/science/space/its-alive-nasas-new-horizons-pluto-probe-wakes-work-n262996>
