KOMPUTER ENTHUSIASTS OF GREATER SEATTLE

Welcome to a very warm July! Washington State is opening up; however, the North Bellevue Community Center is closed for evening meetings in July. I hope by September we will again be meeting in person at the Center.

Our monthly General Meeting will be on Monday, July 12th, via Zoom. This month's program will be "History of the Internet and the World Wide Web" presented by KEGS Member Andy Peck. He will tell how the Internet and World Wide Web were developed and help us understand how they operate today. What we use and take for granted every day was not developed by just one person (as several have claimed). There were several persons and events involved to create this marvelous technology we have available instantly on our smartphones, desktops, laptops, and tablets today. History buffs should find this program very interesting. Please join us via Zoom on Monday evening.

Windows 11 is coming; however, not all Windows 10 devices will be able to upgrade. The key item needed appears to be TPM 2.0 (Trusted Platform Module). If your laptop or desktop is no older than 5 years, you may be able to upgrade. Some devices have TPM 2.0, but it has to be turned on in the BIOS. We are continuing to learn more about this upgrade and should know more in the next few months. Your Windows 10 device (with the latest updates) may continue to be supported until 2025.
